Ozon Provides Further Update On Its $750 Million Senior Unsecured Convertible Bonds Due 2026

August 23, 2022 – Ozon Holdings PLC (NASDAQ and MOEX: “OZON”, thereafter referred to as “we”, “us”, “our”, “Ozon” or the “Company”), operator of the leading Russian e-commerce platform, notifies of a potential event of default on its $750 million 1.875 per cent. senior unsecured convertible bonds due 2026 (“Bonds”), issued by the group’s Cypriot holding company, Ozon Holdings PLC.

As previously disclosed, the Company and an ad hoc group of holders of the Bonds (the “Ad Hoc Group”) and their advisors have entered into negotiations in order to reach agreement on a consensual restructuring of its financial indebtedness under the Bonds. Those negotiations are in the final stage and the Company expects to be in a position to implement a restructuring of the Bonds within the current financial year.

In view of the above and in the interest of all its stakeholders, the Company consequently will be at this point deferring the coupon payment due on August 24, 2022 under the terms of the Bonds. According to the T&C of the Bonds, failure to make coupon payments due on the Bonds constitutes a Potential Event of Default which upon lapse of 14 calendar days (i.e., on September 8, 2022) will become an “Event of Default”.

For additional information regarding Bonds and status of our discussions with the Ad Hoc Group, please refer to the Company’s press-releases dated March 11, 2022, May 30, 2022 and June 1, 2022. The Company plans to continue to operate as usual and appreciates the continued support of its stakeholders and counterparties in these uncertain times.
